Don Tracksters Meet U.S.C. Here Fri.

Dons Second In Triangular Meet

A recent newspaper clipping with the date line of Wellington, New Zealand tells of the passage of a pension bill for newspaper men. Rah! Rah! They are progressive.

Strange to state, however, the pensions are open only to those who write for publication. This would eliminate nearly the entire news staff. Most of them have not moved to Wellington or Auckland yet.

WHY does the Brotherhood have to be given credit for every story that is written by one of its members. Other groups write for the college without demanding their name on a date line. If a Bachelor's "motef" was carried out, the subtitles might read as follows: "by Lotta Brains (La Boheme), by Ima Ina Hurrie (Press Club), by Klever Kenny (Beti Phi Alpha), by Eppie Curus, Speedex (Seven J. C. Philosophers) and by Silent Knight (Brotherhood of Bachelors.)"

This would help fill up the wide open spaces of unwritten assignments. Of course, the Brother who wrote the track story was thinking of that and now it's your turn to tell one.

TO ask or not to ask. That is the question which is, confronting the J. C. girls. Tremendous! Important! Challenging! And the men are led away to the dance. Some people are bashful and others accept but the majority of the men are still waiting. Be patient, men. Even some of the Bachelors have not yet been asked.

CONDITIONS in the U. of Michigan are rotten when the students openly sell liquor to their fellow students. It is a poor method of working one's way through college.

Of all the criminal trades, bootlegging ranks far down the list. Not only is the law broken but the lives of the customers are endangered in these days of poison liquor. A degree paid with the health and happiness of fellow classmates can hardly be viewed with pride.

P. S. (Parting Shot) Yes, Commenter believes in law enforcement. It would be interesting to see prohibition tried for a year. Its half trial may be considered successful if judged by increased bank deposits.

Notice

An important meeting of the executive board of the Press Club will be held at noon Friday in E. M. Nealley's room.

This meeting, as the first one of the new executive board, will be especially important and it is imperative that every board member be present.

Vawters and Strocheim starred for Santa Ana in the triangular track meet here Saturday, when Riverside Junior College nosed out a victory by a narrow margin. Lacking the services of Weber and Clays the Dons were forced to second place, Riverside totaling 65½ points, Santa Ana 58, and Pasadena 39½.

The day was hot and a wind blew all day long but notwithstanding this fact the conference records in the 2 mile, mile, 880 yd. run, and shot put were broken. Bob Vawters, star Santa Ana distance man, not only lowered the mile from 4 minutes 48 seconds to 4 minutes 42 seconds but also clipped several seconds off the 880 which he ran in the fast time of 2 min. 41 sec. Disbrow the high point man of the day heaved the shot for 38 feet 10 inches. Captain Shipman of Riverside cut a second off of the 2 mile which he ran in 11 min. 3 seconds.

The meet was close until the last event the result was uncertain. Santa Ana and Riverside tied in taking first places with 6 apiece while the Pasadena Pirates managed to obtain 3.

Disbrow of Pasadena piled up 13 points for first place in the individual scores. Walker of Riverside followed with 11 and Vawters, and Strocheim both made 10.

Al Clays the Dons 100 yard dash flash was again barred from running. He ran unofficially and placed first as usual. Next Saturday in the meet with University of Southern California Freshmen he will go up against two of the fastest runners on the Coast. He will be eligible for this meet and is expected to bring in a few firsts.

NORTHERN AND EASTERN COLLEGES OBTAIN BIG MAJORITY OF GRADS

"I'll see you at California" is the salutation with which seven of the graduates of Santa Ana J. C. will greet each other this summer. Exactly one fourth of the class of '27 have signified their intentions of attending the northern institution.

Other colleges which will be attended by Dons, according to a list compiled for the Algal by the Editor, are: Stanford, 5; U. C. S. B., 5; U. S. C., 2; Pomona, 1; L. A. Library School, 1; U. of Illinois, 1; Dartmouth, 1; Columbia, 1; Ward-Bellmont, 1.

This proves the contention that the Dons like to travel. Only nine are planning to register for Southland colleges, twelve go north, and four expect to get their degrees from Eastern Universities. The number who have not yet decided is three.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW COLLEGE "Y" DISCUSSION GROUP HOLDS SEMI-MONTHLY MEET

Rapid progress is being made in the construction of the new $100,000 gymnasium for the joint use of the high school and junior college, but it will not be ready for dedication until about May 1.

Due to the addition of the plunge, a delay has been experienced in the plans for the opening of the building.

Already the surfacing of the exterior is nearly completed and the plastering of the walls is proceeding. The maple flooring for the main "gym" is in place and the auxiliary floor is being laid, according to the construction engineers.

With fitting ceremonies and a bronze tablet will be erected in the honor of Frank Andrews, former secretary of the Santa Ana school board, as a tribute to his foresight and interest in providing for the future of the school by making possible the gymnasium.

With the plunge, the cost of the building will reach $118,000 according to estimates. The plunge was included in the original plans but it was only recently known that there was sufficient finances to insure it.

Santa Ana will have what is asserted to be one of the finest gymnasiums in the Southland when the building is completed. Modern facilities have been provided throughout. Although the opening will be too late for much use this season, it will be the headquarters for athletic activities next year.

The Algal

Work on the Algal, student annual, is progressing rapidly, according to Robert O'Brien, commissioner of publications. All pictures have been taken and it is expected that the print shop will begin work on it within the next few weeks. Publication date is June 1.

St. Ann's Inn To Be Scene of Frolicing Dons and Donas Friday

St. Ann's inn it to be the scene of the next social affair of the season. It is the annual party put on by the Woman's Org. The date chosen for the dance is Friday, March 19, at nine o'clock.

Stanford's orchestra has been obtained for the occasion, so good music is promised. Favor dances and other novelties are being planned by the committee.

After much discussion about the means of getting "dates", it was finally

The discussion groups which the Junior College "Y" has been holding after their semi-monthly meetings have proven to be quite interesting. At present there are two of these groups, one, a Bible discussion, under Mr. Glenn, and the other, a Campus Problem Group, under Mr. Beeman. The first mentioned has already adopted a text as a guide. The Campus Problem Group has decided not to have a regular text to follow, but to take up the various questions with which the college student is faced.

At the last meeting, social relations between college men and women was thoroughly dissected and analyzed. Coming as it did, after Mrs. Northcross' talk on the subject "What the junior college women think of the junior college men," there was no trouble in breaking the ice. Some very frank things were said regarding the responsibility of both sexes for the existing difficulties. One member of the discussion remarked as follows:

"The girls, nowadays, do not do their part. I will use my own experience as an example. I have been going with girls pretty regularly for five years. During that time I have spent at least 25 Dollars on shows and entertainment for their benefit. Yet not once has a girl invited me into her house for lunch. If we ate together it had to be done down town at my expense. It would not strike me so forcibly if it were not for the fact that such ways seem to be not the exception, but the rule."

Two colored men were leaving a hen roost.

"Laws, Mose," gasped Sam, "why do you suppose them flies follows us so close?"

"Keep gallopin' nigger," said Mose, "them ain't flies. Them's buckshot."

Clays To Meet Borah Draper In Century

The Dons are to go up against a real team here Friday when they meet the Freshman squad from the University of Southern California. The Frosh have on their team some of the greatest sprinters and runners in the country.

Although Webber will still be unable to compete, Al Clays will be on deck and will try to show his heels to the visitors, two century stars, Borah and Draper. Both of these individuals are ten second men and placed high in the interscholastic meet at Chicago last year. Clays has beaten Borah once and will endeavor to repeat Friday. Draper is said to be even better than Borah but he will have to be at his best if he intends to win. This should be one of the most interesting races on the Santa Ana track this year.

Another feature of the day will be the performance of Chesley Unruh who does the mile in 4:25. He has come very near breaking the worlds record for the mile several times and may do so Friday when pushed by Bob Vawter the Santa Ana crack distance man.

A star half-miler in the person of Ed Gloege will be with us also. He is considered to be one of the best at this distance on the Pacific Coast. With these four stars present it looks as though Vawter, Clays and the rest of the squad will be in for a busy day.

The Trojans are not over confident however. They realize that the Dons have some excellent runners on their squad and know that they will have to put forth their best efforts in order to win.

The Orpheo Troupe

Santa Ana Junior College Orpheo Troupe which makes an annual visit to the high schools of the county has begun its tour this year. The troupe, composed of members of the student body, presents an entertainment and describes the advantages offered those attending S. A. J. C. Appearances have been made in several schools and before a large number of luncheon clubs while others are scheduled. Organizations as distant as Escondido have asked that the troupe visit them.

Hugh: "I—I started late."

Carol: "Why didn't you start early?"

Hugh: "Now listen dear, you see it was like this, it was, well, er, it was too late to start early."

Perhaps some of the young ladies of the college are realizing the difficulties which many of the gentlemen must have at some time experienced. They have become besieged with bashfulness; It has been proven to be predominant in the masculine section for some little time, but has never been apparent among the feminine species before. It may have been merely lying dormant.

The clue to this mystery is that the women are now placed in the position of being compelled to ask the men for dates. They, cruel beasts, stand back and wait, enjoying the sad predicament of the women. They have asserted their rights, and they have received them. They are now enjoying the havoc they have wrought!

Sarcasm! Even though it is one of the most disagreeable of all evils, it is met with continually. Sarcasm is predominant in the class rooms, in the halls, and on the campus. It is one of the greatest things the college has to contend with.

Time was when a sarcastic remark was regarded as perhaps the height of cleverness. It has long ago passed that stage, and it has now developed into a most disagreeable trait.

Sarcasm is often indulged in unknowingly. It has become so common as just to "slip out" without premeditation. But once said, a remark savoring of sarcasm cannot be recalled. It is also often possessed of direful results.

Students are not the only people who hearken unto this pastime. It has been noticed among the faculty. Owing to their greater experience, their remarks are more subtle, more hidden, but nevertheless reek of — Sarcasm.

Heeding not the warning cry—
Beware!

Against the white foam caps
Their prow unyielding raps;
Heeding not the thunder claps.

Their decks with reckless surging,
Wind and wave together urging.
Beware!

Peace now—the storm is done.

What mightier being strides behind,
Who from fiery hand strews out
The elves of life upon the wind?

Laboring thru earth from seed to sun
Till the green pillars thick with grain
And the long marvelous labor's done.

Oh, when the food is made for man,

So they exult and do they fly.

Dating is not
All "Gravey"

"Hello! Have you asked your fellow for the dance?"

"No. Have you?"

"I should say not. I'm going to wait till the night before."

"But then they will all be taken. Anyway, I don't see how I'm ever going to do it. What if he'd turn me down?"

"Or say he had one already."

"Oh; that would be terrible."

Thus goes the dating up for the Women's Org. dance. Some venture-some college women have already said the word, and some gracious gentlemen have accepted. It's rather a novel experience for both men and women. What a chance the women have to impress upon their idols the fact that they would like a date from them some day. As for the fellows, they are having the chance of a lifetime, that of turning down a date! There will surely not be many so dumb as to turn down chances like these. They are too thrilling.

Withal some good fun is resulting from the scheme and it is hoped by many J. C. students that the party will be such an overwhelming success that "slating" will never be mentioned again.

Indeed it is our opinion that the men will have to watch to their laurels, or the women will take the privilege of dating away from them altogether.

A New Generation Of Dons

In other days Orange County was the home of a proud people—the Dons. They came from Spain to live on the great land grants given them by their king. They had courage, they loved beauty and gracious living. They passed; but they have left a heritage of glamour and romance.

This heritage has now become the mantle of Santa Ana Junior College for the student body has adopted "Dons" as the official nick-name of the college. All representatives of the college in intercollegiate contests or otherwise will be expected to revitalize and embody those frequently-forgotten virtues characteristic of the Dons of old. Hence, courtesy, fair-play and friendliness go hand-in-hand with strenuous competition as far as the new generation of Dons is concerned.

Grains by the Thrasher
By R. R. G.

Here is a good joke on the race to which McHenry, McCoy, McClain claim allegiance. An undertaker was planning to go out of business, and so he advertised the sale of caskets at half-price, a fifty per cent reduction. Before morning, 18 scotchmen had committed suicide.

Evidently, the thrasher has been using his almost exclusive privilege of thrashing too much of late. Consequently from now on the thrashings will be administered without any mention of names. This does in no way contradict my aforementioned motto— What's in a name.

A certain tall, brown-haired, freckle-faced, be-spectacled arrival from Oklahoma (pronounced with a drawl) made his debut the other day in knickers and how the girls snickered. In accordance with my strict policy of not mentioning names, the fact that he has a kid brother in high school whose last name is Staton will have to suffice. I wonder if his mother made them.

We also wonder if he found the socks in the pockets when he got home.

CHAFF

The stepsetters club is getting lazy. This weeks chocolate coated wagon spoke goes to the fellow who brought his hat into the library (boiler factory) in order that he might do all of his whispering under his hat.

That string of flags which was exhibited in assembly last week looked like some dona's clothesline.

C. Weise has been ousted from his position as president of the stepsetters organization. With alarming rapidity, a new election was held and Adele Lutz was returned to the office. She ran on an anticlass disturbing platform. We hope she will be able to make a clean up on the steps, as the janitor has been particularly busy in other places.

Being an ardent member of the club, I will lend my sterling support to the present administration.

MORE CHAFF

The stepsetters club is becoming extinct.

AND MORE CHAFF

The stepsetters club meets only for educational purposes.

And so on into the night.

Now the boys have got a chance to say no to a girl and it isn't leap year either.

CHAFF

I've been asked so many times to go to the dance, I hardly know what to do.

But seriously, it seems that the girls lead us around enough already without giving them this added responsibility.

Mary Elizabeth: "That moustache reminds me of a football game."

Portia: "What's that, eleven on each side?"

M.E: "No, first down."

"Not So Fast" To Be Presented By Tustin Drama Class

"Not So Fast," the three act comedy by Conrad Westervelt, is to be given by the Drama class of Tustin Union high school, on the evening of March 26, in the high school auditorium at Tustin. All who have seen the play declare it one of the snappiest, cleverest, and most exciting plays that they have seen for some time.

The cast has been working on the play for four weeks, under the direction of Miss Olive LaClair, Dramatics teacher at Tustin, and according to reports coming from the stage, the presentation should make the play live up to its reputation in every way.

The play deals with the Standish children who are left orphans and under the charge of two guardians, one a New Yorker and the other a "slow moving old blimp from Kentucky." The Eastern guardian is trying to make an investment and must receive the signature of the "Blimp" before he can put the deal through. Many things happen and "Jazz B." goes through many experiences before he finally gets it "signed." To tell more would give the plot away, but to see what has been told and to find how it turns out, is guaranteed by the cast to be well worth the twenty-five or thirty-five cent admission charge.

The proceeds of the play are to be split fifty-fifty between the Drama class and the Audion, the Tustin high school annual. — G. F. Jr.

"Wanna go home with me?"
"Yeah."
"Where's your car?"

The athletic commissioner regrets to say that only $500,000.00 was taken in at the track meet last Saturday. The failure to draw a crowd was probably due to the weather. The day was clear and warm, a most miserable day.

Riverside won the meet because Van Rensselear, Santa Ana's star runner was out of the running on account of a tear in his track suit.

"Which hand do you stir coffee with?"
"My right hand."
"Most people use a spoon."

"Hellow! Are you on your honeymoon?"
"Yes."

"Introduce me to your wife."
"Sorry I can't. She isn't with me. One of us had to stay at home to look after the business."

Two colored men were leaving a hen roost.

"Laws, Mose," gasped Sam, "why do you suppose them flies follows us so close?"

"Keep gallopin' nigger," said Mose, "them ain't flies. Them's buckshot."

An Athletic Survey

The group of men who give their time and serious thought to track activities are to be watched and admired. Track, without a doubt, shows up the individual more than any other sport; it shows especially whether he has determination and endurance. If a man stays with the squad throughout the season, he proves to the school not only that he is a winner but also that he is master of himself.

The track schedule for this year is a stiff one: March 13, Triangular Meet, Santa Ana vs. Riverside and Pasadena at Santa Ana; March 19, Dual Meet, Santa Ana vs. U. S. C. Frosh at Santa Ana; March 27, Invitational Meet, Santa Ana vs. Santa Barbara at Santa Barbara; April 3, Conference Meet, All junior colleges at Santa Ana; April 10, Dual Meet, Santa Ana vs. LaVerne College at Santa Ana.

Coach Harris declares that this year's track squad looks like the best in the history of the school.

In making a further survey of the athletic field, we find that elsewhere the base ball candidates are busily conditioning themselves for the heavy schedule which starts April 16. Five junior colleges will have teams this year. Several practice games will be played with high school teams prior to the opening of the conference.

On another section of the field a squad of eight boys are striving to improve their strokes in tennis in preparation for the conference tournament to be held May 15 at Fullerton.

One week later, May 22, the boys will demonstrate their prowess in water sports at the annual swimming tournament to be held at Pasadena. Courtesy of Santa Ana Collegian.

Y.M.C.A. Deputation Team Hold Meet In Anaheim

"Jesus in Every Day Life" was the subject with which the Y. M. C. A. deputation team for the college dealt with Sunday night, March 14. The team had charge at the church service at the First Presbyterian church of Anaheim in the evening.

Three talks were delivered, the first, given by Allen Goddard, was on "Jesus in the Industrial World." It was brought out that even in the busy world of commerce and industry, we should always have time for Christianity.

The second talk, by Donald Purvis was on "Jesus and the Racial Problem" and it brought out very clearly the difficulty of carrying the Christian spirit into racial problems. The people on the Pacific Coast, have of course, a better chance to practice their doctrines because of daily contact with other races.

Robert O'Brien spoke on "Jesus for Every Day" and he emphasized the possibilities of bringing Christ into our home and college life. Especially in its dealing with friendship does Christianity become an active factor in the life of a young person.

A quartette of Junior College girls gave a special music number at the close of the service. The quartette is composed of Ruth Stephenson, Ruth Crawford, Helen Glancy and Mary Elizabeth Rutledge.

This meeting was of more than usual interest owing to the fact that a member of the team, Allan Goddard is a member of the church visited. Rev. Walker expressed the friendly feeling that the church extended to Allen and his colleagues of the evening.

President Alderman Says:

"I enroll myself among those who believe in modern youth. I perceive in them a certain freedom from cant and hypocrisy, from pedantry and sham. Their spirit is the spirit of discovery. Their mood is critical—sometimes they seem unduly to flout and jeer. Their manners are strange and sketchy, but their souls are sensitive to great causes. They are serious in the face of real problems. They are demanding the right to stand on their own feet, to exalt their own prophets, to erect their own standards, to develop, rather than to accept as an inheritance, their own social consciousness."

Donas Attend First Playday of Season

Saturday's meet with Pasadena and Riverside justified everything that had been said about it. It was a real meet, and there are no alibis.

The Donas would have won with a good bunch of rooters in the stands. Of course, there were some local supporters present as per usual. But not enough to give us the extra points which we needed.

There would have been a much larger rooting squad had not the playday at Riverside required the presence of the Donas at said place. Incidentally, they had some hard luck.

Bob Vawter, premier miler of the conference, started off the day's activities with first place in the mile. He ran a good race, but did not extend himself. Time 4:42. And, by the way, it was a new conference record.

Later in the day, we found out why he didn't. He was going to run the 880. And, would you believe it, he broke the conference record by winning in the good time of 2 min. 4.1 sec. It was surely a peach of a race. Two conference records in one day it not so bad.

What do you think of Herb Stroeheim? The Capistrano Flash took first in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes. "Stew" was a good third in the 100.

And still we wonder. Is Claves going to run in the conference meet, or are Stroeheim and Ritner going to dash for the Donas alone.

Charles Webber, alias "Chuck," alias "Ptmaine," alias "Ox," etc., was needed very much Saturday. This guy, Walker, seems to know his stuff in the high's. I'm betting on Webber to lead him a merry chase when they meet. Yes, sir, Charles, we missed you. And we are all pulling for you.

Gee! Gosh! Wasn't the 440 a whale of a race? 54 sec. flat. Craig can do that and better, and, by George, he's going to win the conference 440. Wait and see. Anyway, the Donas finished two, three, and four; Lewis, Lancaster, and J. Lutz, respectively.

Another conference record was nipped in the two-mile. Shipman of Pasadena ran a nice race. He must think he is pretty good, because he ran two yards outside the pole for six laps. Weise, the Tustin Terror, ran a mighty nice race and finished third.

Captain Everett Lutz was not up to top form Saturday and had to be content with a tie for second place in the "stick jump." He also took second in the low hurdles.

Of course we won the relay. And, mark my words, we are going to win the conference meet. The team says so, too. The coach says so, too. And if the student body says so, too, and backs up its words, we shall win.

Bureau Aids Students

During its four months of operation the employment bureau of the college has had calls from 28 employers desiring student help. The work has been part-time and demanded both skilled and unskilled workers. While many of the calls were for temporary work, a goodly number furnished permanent employment. Exactly 48 student have been aided in securing work.

J.C. Ball Nine Falls Before Tustin Squad

Baseball has commenced, and S.A. J.C. has an unusually good prospect for a winning team. The players have already begun practice, and several practice games have been scheduled.

The first practice game was played with Tustin. In this game the Junior College players were badly beaten. This defeat, however, was caused by lack of training, and we hope that a bad start will result in a good ending.

Judson Harmon has been selected as manager.

The first team players and their positions are:

Chaffee—pitcher

Lyons (sub.)—pitcher

Ebersole—catcher

Geren—first base

Van Rennessler—second base

Van Dyke—third base

Mingey—short stop

Waters—center field

On Saturday, March 13, twenty five Donas made the trip to the second playday at Riverside. Hockey, volleyball, and tennis were the sports featured during the day.

The Dona hockey team, playing in a fast, hard game was defeated by a score of 3-0, Pasadena being the victors. Whereas many of the Donas were entered for the first time in competitive play in hockey, the Pasadena girls have had a full lesson in the fall and were experienced players. Nevertheless it was a corking good game and good hockey was evidenced throughout.

The Santa Ana girls volleyball squad, playing against the prime athletes of Chaffee J. C. were defeated also by a score of 3-0. The Donas put up a hard fight but were unable to cope with the hard hitting Chaffee girls.

In tennis, one of the opponents of Santa Ana was knocked in a hockey game played in the morning, so the match was called off.

In spite of athletic defeat the Donas felt the playday a great success, and are looking forward to the next playday to be held at Fullerton on May 15. Baseball, track and swimming will be played at Fullerton.

Donas making the trip to Riverside were: Axia Goodykoontz, Mae Patmor, Wilma Brundien, Marjorie Blauer, Helen Glancy, Adele Lutz, Marjorie Callis, Charlotte Fine, Charlotte Harnois, Louisa Hampton, Della Hampton, Ruth Hilyard, Hope Davis, Frances Hallman, Dot Cartwright, Marian Stanley, Genevieve Squires, Lola Skaggs, Ruth Davis, Florence Hoefer, Thelma Patton, Muriel Smith Enid Twist, Evelyn Metzgar, Ernestine Swindler, and Kate Benton.
